Broward County and District 25 voter registration data shows Republicans and Independents continue to gain on a rapidly decreasing Democrat voter base.

The Broward County Democrat voter registration advantage continued to shrink, accelerating a multi-year decline and dropping below 45% for the first time in decades. Republicans and Non-Party Affiliated voters reaped the benefits. Continuing the Democrats' downward trajectory in Broward County and District 25 over the past several years, since January 2024:

- FL-25 Democrats gained 3,241 voters

- County-wide, Democrats gained 13,857 voters
- County-wide, Republicans and Independents gained 56,851 voters

Broward County

Rep: 23.41% (highest since 2012)
Other: 31.83%

District 25

Dem: 39.28% (down from 41% in Jan 2024)
Rep: 26.30%
Other: 34.43%

Since June 2020, Democrats in FL-25 saw their gap over Republicans shrink from 21.14% to 12.98%.

US Congressional Candidate in District 25 Chris Eddy stated, "This continues to be the most underreported story in this election. These numbers follow the state-wide trend away from a party that has not performed well with the economy, foreign policy, or family values. We expect this to be an anti-incumbent election with a vast majority of the Independents and even some Democrats looking for more positive leadership for the District."
