FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Eddy stated, “Nearly every day, we meet a Democrat who wants to switch parties.” While the Broward County Democrats represent less than 46% of the electorate, District 25 Democrats make up only 40% of the total.

Since the 2020 elections, Broward County Democrats saw a 4% drop as a percentage of total voters (49.82% to 45.67%) while Republicans saw their share increase 1.61% to 22.91% and Independents grew 2.55%.

FL-25 Republicans saw a similar swing, but just since 2022. Eddy remarked, “The November election will be close with about 7,000 voters making up the winning margin, or 2% of the expected voter turnout. If Republicans and Independents keep gaining voters, this will be enough to tip the election in our favor.”
